

Getting Involved

A discussion on ways to be involved in your local ACAC

Katherine Miele; University of South Carolina
Amanda Wulle; Purdue University

As an Individual...

Develop your Network

Professional Development

- * Attend Conferences and workshops
 - * Present sessions
- * Join committees
- * Hold leadership positions

Fill in the gaps on your resume

As a Regional Group...

NYSACAC Conference 2017

- Coming Together Conference
- Presented(6) as an organization
- Table during resource fair

Future

Looking to get a ROAM.NYC member on Board

Pros:

Creating a philosophy of co-existing Networking
Can be less expensive than attend National conferences

Cons:

Not your institutional ACAC
Office not open to involvement

Discussion & Questions

Katherine Miele,
Senior Regional Admissions Representative
University of South Carolina

mielekr@mailbox.sc.edu

Amanda Wulle,
Assistant Director,
NYC Regional Representative
Purdue University

awulle@purdue.edu